Senior History

In due course of time we arrived at the portals of higher education, commonly known as high school. There were 34 members of our class in our freshman year. As is customary, we were formally received into high school by the seniors at an initiation in the fall.

Blue and gold were chosen as our class colors and our motto was, "Climb, though the rocks be rugged." Those persons elected to reign as officers for the year were: Alice Hamstra, president; Sig Boezeman, vice president; Mary Jane White, secretary; James Bahler, treasurer.

In our sophomore year we changed sponsors several times. At the first of the year Mrs. Ruch was our sponsor. Upon her leaving, Mr. Hinton took her place. When Mr. Hinton left for the navy Mr. Downing assumed the responsibility of guiding us through the remainder of the school year.

The class officers chosen were: Bertha Vander Molen, president; Sig Boezeman, vice president; Lois Lageveen, secretary. There were 26 members in the class.

A Christmas party and several skating parties were the activities of the class for the year.

As Juniors we entered into the usual activities customary to juniors such as presenting a class play entitled, "Professor, How Could You?" which proved to be a great success.

There were seventeen members in our class and the officers were as follows: Bertha Vander Molen, president; Dick Evans, vice president; Lois Lageveen, secretary-treasurer. Our sponsor was Miss Venable.

We gave the Seniors a party, and received our class rings, which we are still proudly wearing.

As seniors we were happy to be in school, but were sorry to think of leaving before long.

In December, Gerrit Van Keppel, a member of our class, received "greetings," from the President of the United States," and was accepted into the Navy.

Robert Anderson reported at Indianapolis, on March 4, and was inducted into the Navy. Both Gerrit and Robert will receive diplomas even though they didn't finish their last year of high school.

We are very proud of our former classmates who are in the services. We have a marine, two sailors, and several young men in the army who were formerly in our class. At the last census taken, there were twelve members in our class. The Officers are: Paul Hoffman, president; Mary Jane White, vice president; Lois Lageveen, secretary; Sam Kingma, treasurer. Our sponsor is Mr. Stephens.

In November, a mystery comedy, "The Phantom Bells," was presented. There were thrills and chills galore. A matinee performance was given to the students for the first time in our school.

We shall greatly miss our Alma Mater, our fellow students, and our teachers. We hope they will miss us too.

Class

We're one big happy family,
Says the class of '44
You think you'd like to know us?
O. K. I'll tell you more.

Coach Stephens is our sponsor, our guardian and our friend.
I know we'll all be sorry when our work together ends.
He always seemed like one of us, we think a lot of him,
But before he gets us graduated, I'll bet we make his head swim.

His name is Richard Evans, but he's Ruffy to us all
He does a lot of shooting; dice, geese, and basketball.
Of old jalopys, girls, and fords, he's always been quite fond,
And specimens of each one he's always hanging 'round.

His hobby is collecting girls,
The smaller and cuter the better;
And when you see a gang of girls
You know Shorty's somewhere in the center.

Margie came to use from Whiting.
She's pretty, she's small, she's smart.
She soon had all the boys fighting
To try to win her heart.

He's the boy with the hair that stands up straight.
(It's only a hair cut, not really fright)
And though he doesn't do it often, Sam can really sing,
But I guess he'd rather play basketball than be like sissy Bing.

Rabbit never has much to say
But he sure makes up for it in a great big way.
Just get him out on a basketball floor
And he'll make that crowd holler, he'll make that crowd roar.

Delia, another member of our class
Is a pretty little lass.
She certainly does like to study
And she don't hate nobody.

Poem

He's the president of our Senior Class.
He's also our Don Juan.
I guess the reason Paul captures the girls
Is 'cause his hair is wavy and blond.

Steve, or Terpy, is over six feet tall,
And it comes in handy when he plays basketball
When you see him and Sig walking together,
You think it's Mutt and Jeff from the funny paper.

If there's any devilment going on
Like swipping pants and ringing a gong,
I bow my head and humbly say,
I probably started it on its way.

Lois has a taste for pretty clothes
She might even design them when she grows up, who knows.
Skipping school is her favorite pastime
But any time now will be her last time.

There must be something special in the way that Sig is made
'Cause the girls, they sure do like him, just like flies and marmalade.
Oh, he can shoot that basketball, and can he run that race,
But the best thing about him is his darling little face.

Before he left us for his country he was manager of our team.
But now he's very busy knocking over that Jap machine.
Gerrit's in the Navy serving Uncle Sam
While the rest of us at home help in any way we can.

Quietness is his main virtue.
Something the rest of us Seniors can't claim.
But he has a sense of humour.
Boyd Schwanke is his name.

Last but not least is Mary Jane.
In our Senior Class she's the one with the brain.
Her name will go down on the Honor Roll
As the one in the Class who will reach her goal.

Prophecy of Class of 1944

May 1, 1954:

It has been ten years since our class graduated from DeMotte High School, the world has undergone a great many changes. Sitting here at my desk in the control tower of Roosevelt Field, I have been wondering what has happened to my old classmates. Where have they wandered and what have they done?

My writing was interrupted by the landing of a small unidentified plane. When the pilot stepped out I recognized her immediately as Carolyn Bass, the famous traveler and writer. I had not seen her for several years, but she hadn't changed a bit.

If some of the dead skeptics of the early 1900's could come back to life they would be amazed at the world of today; airplanes instead of automobiles. The television screen just brought in a flash that a new medical discovery was developed today by none other than that famous scientist Robert Anderson. Who would have thought Robert would ever have become a doctor?

"Calling control tower!" "Calling control tower!" "Plane coming in on Runway 3."

Answering that call I recognized the voice to be that of Paul Hoffman, the playboy. A distant relative left him quite a large fortune which he is having no trouble in spending.

Last night I went out to dinner with some friends. We went to a show and after the show we went to supper at Eugene Stangle's new supper club "The Silver Moon." Here we saw Boyd Schwanke. His new flame is surely a very beautiful girl. Boyd doesn't do bad for a newspaper editor and publisher.

A number of tables away sat two very nice looking blondes. Surprise! They were Delia Kleinblossom and Margaret Ball, having a friendly little supper. Of course their names aren't Kleinblossom and Ball anymore. Delia must have caught that certain sailor, and Margie used to say the army had her heart.

May 2, 1954:

Am I sleepy this morning or am I? I really enjoyed myself immensely last night. The show was good and, of course, the greatest joy was meeting my old classmates. Checking the day's passenger list, I found three familiar names. Those of Signund Boezeman and Steven Terpstra the farmers from out Indiana way. I didn't get a chance to speak to them but they were both looking prosperous and just as handsome as ever. The third name I recognized was that of Captain Gerrit Van Keppel. Gerrit surely went up in a rush. But remembering Gerrit of a few years ago, one never knows how fast he was going any place, or whether he would get there in his Buick.

May 5, 1954:

Nothing spectacular has happened for days until this morning while checking the passenger lists. I found the name of Reverend Sam Kingma and his family. When I got a chance I went out on the field to see Sam. I discovered Sam Jr., George, and Peter all with very short crew haircuts. What a surprise! Their father, the Sam we knew, was raging at them. All the boys wanted ice cream cones.

May 8, 1954:

Yesterday afternoon while walking down Fifth Avenue I happened to meet Richard Evans. Stopping to talk to him, I learned he had just developed a new system of raising albino cattle, the reason for his fame.

Last night I stopped by at Eugene Stangle's "Silver Moon" and just as I walked in I was met in a rush. Disentangling myself, I found the rush to have been Eugene and Lois Lagavcen, the advertising specialist, who designs women's clothing as a hobby. They decided it called for a celebration and so we went to a show.

May 10, 1954:

It seems strange but nevertheless it's true that in the last 10 days I have seen all of my old classmates who graduated in 1944.

Class Will

At the Senior Class of 1949, in the High School at De Motte, in the State of Indiana, be one of sound mind and memory, the make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills or promises, by us any time heretofore, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to another, as the thoughtless.

TO OUR DEAR TEACHERS

To Mr. Stauble we will a senior class that will at least read their civic lesson, let alone get out of class work.

To our sponsor, Mr. Stephens, we will a book keeping class that can keep busy until time for the bell so they will have "exercise 38" done by Christmas.

To Mr. Townsend we will a senior class big enough to be able to buy him two flannel shirts for Christmas.

To Mrs. Cook we will all of our old red flannels so she can wipe the Hallowe'en flour off the roof of her car.

To Mrs. Rainwater we will a class of boys that can sing instead of just making a noise.

To Mrs. Erny we will an assembly that can wait until after school to sail their paper airplanes.

TO THE JUNIORS

Sig Boezeman wills his still but deep running water to John Int Veld and Norman Abbring.

Lois Lageveen wills her likeness for extra circular activities to Sue Kearney and Thelma De Fries.

Rabbit Anderson wills his athletic ability to James Fieldhouse and Frank Roorda.

Steve Terpstra wills part of his length to Arnold Sweet, Bill Heinman, and La Verne Marshall.

Mary Jane White wills her prudence ways to Lawrence DeLoek, Paul Stevenson, and Ray Minnola.

Harold Selwanke wills his ability to be smart and reserved at all times to John Walstra and Joe Knisland.

Garrit Van Koppel wills his ability, which he learned in the race, to lead and guide people, to Shirley Hart and Barbara Rowen.

Delia Kleinblossom wills her ability to stay undated for 18 years to Biddy Wright and Evelyn Osting.

Red Evans wills his dates in a Ford V-8 to Dick Hendrichs, Milton Peterson, and Bill Recker.

Carolyn Bass wills her ability to get along with the teachers to Henrietta Kingma, Alice Moole-naar, and Mildred Black.

Sam Kingma wills his short haircuts to Florence Belstra, Ruth Simmons, and Dorothy Story.

Margaret Ball wills her apparent bashfulness to Blanche McKurry, Marilyn Sekema, and Ber nice Terpstra.

Eugene Stangle wills his ability to stay out of feminine entanglements to Bill Ely, Nelson Jabaa, and Howard Hoffman.

I, Paul Hoffman, don't will nothin', because I haint got nothin' and if I did have there ain't nobody to will it to.

The Senior Class, as a whole wills their good study habits and gracious manners to the entire student body.

ATHLETICS

Football

Evans, De Kock, Henrichs, Anderson, Hoffman and Boezeman, all battle-tested veterans, led the DeMotte football team to a great season. These boys were aided greatly by all the subs who did a fine job when put to the test. This team set several records for future teams to shoot at: 5 victories in 6 games, 47 points in 1 game, 189 total points for 6 games, 4 touchdowns by 1 player in 1 game, 78 points scored by 1 player in 6 games, keeping a team scoreless for 1 game, probably these are the most important.

Mt. Ayr and DeMotte shared the conference championship, each team losing 1 game.

Prospects for next season are good, as several regulars and about all the subs will be back. They have had experience and should give the other teams in the conference plenty of trouble.

Second Row: F. Roorda, E. Stangle, R. Anderson, J. Waistra, R. Anderson, D. Hendricks, C. Barker, Mr. C. Stephens.

This year's varsity squad was a high scoring outfit, averaging over 43 points a game. Nine games were won in a row for a new record, for future teams to shoot at. They have the best won and lost percentage of any team as far back as records go, which is 1936. A new trophy was acquired in the K. V. T. by defeating San Pierre in the final game by a score of 32 to 27.

Although the first seven players graduate, the prospects for next season are very good.

Second Team

The DeMotte second team won 15 games while losing 1 game this season for a percentage of .938. They averaged over 28 points a game while holding their opponents to an average of less than 16 points a game. The scoring was evenly divided among the first seven players. Prospects for a good second team next year is great, as a total of 32 boys were out for basketball this year and only 7 graduate.

Booster Club

The Booster's Club has been very active this year in arranging for the printing and distribution of basketball schedules and selling refreshments at most of the athletic events in our school. The main purpose of the Booster's Club, however, is to help create a boosting spirit towards our athletic teams. We feel that our mission was accomplished.

The club consists of ten girls; all the Senior girls, the cheer leaders, and those who were in it last year. The officers are: Lois Lageveen, president; Biddy Wright, vice president; Mary Jane White secretary-treasurer; and Carolyn Bass, Business manager.
